

ESPN ZONE CHICAGO 2010 SPORTS SPELLING BEE CONTEST OFFICIAL RULES

NO PURCHASE OR PAYMENT NECESSARY TO ENTER OR WIN, NOR WILL A PURCHASE IMPROVE ONE'S CHANCES OF WINNING

1. SPONSOR: ESPN Zone, 43 E. Ohio St., Chicago, IL 60611 ("Zone"), who is solely responsible for all aspects of this contest ("Contest").

2. CONTEST: This Contest is a competition to see who can correctly spell either the first and/or last names of athletes/coaches from all kinds of sports, both alive and deceased. The Contest will be conducted in progressive rounds of elimination until one (1) Sports Spelling Champion is unveiled. Each round will consist of:

- Single-elimination one-word oral rounds
- Contestants have 30 seconds to spell the word aloud. Contestants will be alerted when there are 10 seconds remaining. (There will be an official time keeper at the event.)
- Contestants are allowed to start over spelling a word; however, they may not change the letters they have already said.
- If a contestant spells incorrectly, he/she is eliminated by the sound of a bell or whistle.
- If a contestant spells correctly, he/she will continue to compete in more rounds until a champion is declared.

In progressive rounds of elimination, words will be provided based on the level of difficulty as determined by ESPN Zone staff:

- First Round: Regional or National - first or last names – easy
- Second Round: Regional or National - first or last names – medium
- Third Round: Regional or National – first or last names - difficult
- Additional Rounds: Rounds will continue until two final contestants are left. Note, if both contestants spell a word wrong, the process repeats itself with additional words given to both contestants until a winner is declared.

Contestants can ask the following questions regarding athlete's names:

- The team the athlete/coach is from
- To repeat the given name
- Contestants cannot receive help from any outside source, including audience members, computers, cell phones, any portable electronic device, etc.

If an audience member yells out the answer or tries to help a contestant, the current name will be thrown out and the contestant will be asked to spell a different name. If it becomes obvious that a contestant is obtaining help from the audience as determined by ESPN Zone staff, the contestant will be disqualified.

All decisions by ESPN Zone staff are final. Contestants agree to abide by any rulings or judgments made by ESPN Zone in conjunction with the Sports Spelling Bee event.
